Ehlbert-
Ehrman - File

Mrs. Howard Kern
7121 Park Heights Ave.
Baltimore, Maryland 21215

October 12, 1988 -

Dear Mrs. Rodgers,

First; I must tell you that I am the daughter of the Henry Ehrman you speak of in your letter to my son-in-law, Robert Lohmann on May 17th, 1988.

I am really excited about your thorough, professional research and would, indeed, like to pursue it further.

Second: I live now at the address on the top of the page. I am in Natchez at present visiting my children and have tried repeatedly to get in touch with you from both places. Unfortunately, my stay here has been interrupted by illness and I have remained much longer than originally intended. Also, the T.L.C. is wonderful!

I was born to ² Henry and Dora Gross Ehlbert on January 26th, 1896 in Vicksburg, Mississippi — twelve years after their marriage. So, if all is well, I will be 93 in January, incredible as it seems. I knew my Grandfather, Charles Ehlbert, the same person mentioned in your letter as listed in the Philadelphia Immigration Records. My parents left Vicksburg when I was five years old but I visited my Grandparents, Charles and Clara Ehlbert Ehlbert often. I remember one special visit when he drove me (horses and buggy, of course) through the National Cemetery in Vicksburg and ~~point~~ pointed out various Monuments explaining their history. Now I wish I had listened then intently! He served in the Confederate Army under Joseph Johnston and is a longtime Member of U. S. C.
You comment on the fact that so many of the names in the Cemetery are German and Bavarian. Many are Jewish and they, particularly, wished to escape

Conscription into the German Army. I have always thought it ironic that after they lived in America they were so imbued with patriotism that when war broke out here they immediately volunteered to serve their newly adopted Country - on both sides. My two grandfathers served in the Confederate Army. I have a certificate for Charles Goss. I have a great deal of information re the Goss family but little about the Chersons. So much was destroyed by early fires. And even when I was born in 1896 Mississippi kept no Birth records. Please get in touch with Mr. Goss letter is so fascinating! It is remarkable that you have become so interested in genealogy and I am sure that your

Today, I tried again to reach you and am always told by the operator that you are "unlisted". So, I tried the Chancery Clerk's office. They suggest the Jackson Co. Library and the Pascagoula Library, same number.
A very pleasant young lady said that you came there often but were not there then so I left messages everywhere.

Oh! I was connected once to a Mrs. Rodgers, not your street and obviously, not you. We were mutually surprised!
I am afraid this letter will not reach you before I leave Natchez so after Sunday please try Baltimore.

Baltimore, Maryland,

Dear Mrs. Rodgers,

At least I have the grace to blush when I see the date of your charming letter - (October 14th!) even though I have spoken to you since then.

You need not apologize for your typing, it's much better than I could do, but I am sorry that you have trouble with your hands. I imagine that you are very busy during this Holiday Season at the Elvins and am sure your "Boss" welcomes your creative assistance. Re the Research, you requested a fill in of what you had already sent, so here goes; To your original letter to My son-in-law, Robert Lehman, you mentioned that the U.S. Census of 1860, Scott County, Mississippi, showed Henry Ehlman, 3 years old, in the family of Charles and Clara Ehlman. (Henry is my father) which led you to Naturalization records.

This showed that Charles Ehlbert, My grandfather entered his Immigration application in Philadelphia

1. Listed Volume 1. Pascagoula and Tn. Today. This is very interesting to me - and a fact unknown before.

2. You mention finding in Mobile, Ala. the Naturalization record of Marcus Ehlbert. Clara Ehlbert Ehlbert's father and you enclosed a copy which I have.

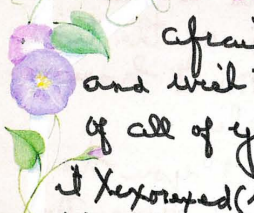

3. In Magnolia Cemetery, Mobile, you found another Ehlbert, Abraham, born about 1801. You inquired in your 1st. letter if I might have any family records that would help you in going further. Unfortunately, I do not. but I am amazed at what you have already accomplished and would love to go further - with compensation, of course - You also sent a copy of the record of the Marriage of Clara Ehlbert to My Grandfather which you found in the Mobile County Court house I was thrilled to receive that! You mention that a copy could be obtained for $1.00, plus postage. Did you mean of the Marriage Certificate itself or a copy of this same page?

It would certainly be more desirable to return your letter with all of this but I am afraid to trust the Mail at this season and wish to take No risk of losing the fruit of all of your labors. I did think of having it Xeroxed (sp.?) but that meant a trip to a shop.

The Elmans were all colorful characters. I do not remember whether or not I told you that this little immigrant boy, Charles Elman, not only served in the Confederate Army but later in the State Legislature as a Member from Warren County; they lived for many years in Vicksburg. All of the boys Henry Elbert and Jacob went into the meat business with their father and became very successful.
They had the franchise for supplying meat to the Empress River Boats of their time as well as the towns people. Later, much later they left Vicksburg and settled in Little Rock.
(Albert), Jacob ("Jake") and Henry in Yazoo City.
I had a marvelous article printed in the Vicksburg paper under the heading, "Vicksburgeseque" written by a well known local writer. I just looked to see if I could find it so that I could quote on excerpt or two for you as I think you would enjoy its flavor and its reflection of the time in which it was written. But, I must have given it to my daughter in Natchez.

I was so happy to hear that you had a husband and a life together and were not the lonely spinster that I envisioned!

Life in Baltimore continues to be interesting and I go out as often as I can. I went to the Opera, La Boheme last week and to the 'Round the World Series, Science Movie, illustrated Lecture that we have. I am very lucky to have wonderful friends, all younger than I am. Some days I feel better than others of course but I do what I can.

I do wish we could sit and talk! I am fascinated by your knowledge of Genealogy and by your letters - give my greetings to your friend Miss Mother. She really sounds remarkable! And if Tommy Wixon ever gets to Natchez tell him to call us.

This "Old Lady" stationery was given to me by an older friend - some one gave it to her. Take care of yourself and have a happy holiday.
Sincerely, Mildred E. Kern
